Youth Advisory Council

The purpose of the council is to provide a forum to build upon and improve existing relationships between youth and members of the law enforcement community. Discussion topics will be directed by council members and may include, but not be limited to, personal safety, extra-curricular activities, teen dating violence, school-related issues, communication, peer pressure, conflict resolution, cultural sensitivity, and the legal system. Council members will speak with peers outside the council to gather relevant questions / issues to be discussed in council. Participation in an open dialogue should provide youth with a better understanding of police matters while fostering Police Department / community relations.

Youth Advisory Council members are eligible to receive Student Service Learning hours for their participation.

The Youth Advisory Council will generally meet at the Baltimore County Public Safety Building located at 700 East Joppa Road, Towson, MD. 21286. The meetings are scheduled on the dates listed below. The first scheduled meeting will be an orientation for council members and their parents / guardians.
